Context & Contemplation

In the Old Testament, the prophet was not primarily someone who predicted the future. Rather, the prophet was one chosen by God to speak His truth to His people, often in times when that truth was difficult to hear. The prophet served as God's messenger, calling Israel back to faithfulness, warning against sin, and reminding the people of the covenant they had forgotten.

Among the prophets, Jeremiah stands out as one who experienced great suffering because of his mission. Called by God while still young, Jeremiah preached repentance to the people of Judah as they drifted further from the Lord. Instead of being welcomed, he was mocked, rejected, imprisoned, and even threatened with death. His message challenged the comfortable assumptions of his own people, making him a prophet who was unwelcome in his own land.

Jeremiah's life reminds us of a truth echoed throughout Scripture: God's word is not always popular. The prophet often stands alone, speaking what is true rather than what is pleasing. Jesus Himself would later say that "a prophet is not without honor except in his native place." Like Jeremiah, Christ was rejected by many of His own people.

The witness of Jeremiah challenges us to listen humbly to God's voice, even when it confronts us, corrects us, and calls us to conversion.

Today's Readings

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time / June 21, 2026

First Reading:

"Sing to the LORD, praise the LORD, for he has rescued the life of the poor from the power of the wicked!" (Jer 20:13)

Psalm:

Lord, in your great love, answer me. (Ps 69)

Second Reading:

But the gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ overflow for the many. (Rom 5:15)

Gospel:

"What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops." (Mt 10:27)

St. Paul Parish will celebrate its Parish Feast Day, the Solemnity of Ss. Peter and Paul on Monday, June 29th. Instead of a small Parish Mass in the morning, there will be a solemn Mass and Eucharistic Procession in the evening at 6:30pm. Following Mass there will be a cookout at the Pavilion.

Also, leading up to the Parish Feast Day Mass, there will be 33 hours of continuous Adoration (1 hour for each year of Jesus' earthly life). Adoration will begin after the 9:00 am Sunday Mass on June 28th and continue until the Feast Day Mass on June 29th at 6:30pm. The sign-up sheet for each hour will be in the vestibule of the church over the next week.
